

Biennium Update Class

Biennium Update Class

A new addition based on legislative direction is included in the 2024/2025 biennium cycle. The courses added are Peer-to-Peer Intervention, Stress management, Racial Sensitivity, and handling a crisis. This training session will go over the basics of each class and give direction on the material. This course is designed to assist the general instructor in teaching these courses. This class is not accredited, and students will not receive any advanced training hours if they attend. This course has some limitations due to the venue, so please register early. Students must have a General Instructor certification to attend.
